

Meet Lady Redelia Fowler

Redelia Fowler is an Author, Speaker, Bible Teacher, Women's Mentor, and Founder of Women by Design Mentoring and Consulting (est. 2016). Offering over 25 years of corporate and ministry experience, Redelia has held positions in Sales Operations and Administration, Budget Management, Real Estate Sales, and Human Resources; in the technology and finance industries. Redelia studied business and communications at Cal State University Dominguez Hills, and earned her Bachelor Degree in General Ministries and Church Administration from West Coast Bible College and Seminary. As a DISC Certified Behavioral Consultant (C.B.C.), Certified Marriage Mentor, and graduate of Saddleback Church Counseling Program, Redelia applies what she has learned in business and ministry to help women identify and maximize their core strengths.

Redelia has a broad spectrum of ministry, civic, and secular experiences that has helped to hone, shape, and equip her to be effective in her role as coach and mentor to others. Redelia is passionate about the Word of God, and strives to implement all of her experiences by putting them to greater use in her business and ministry. Redelia has always had a passion to help women realize their worth, and to thrive in life.

In her personal life, she serves as co-founder of Fulfilled for Life Family Ministries in Fullerton Ca, Bible Teacher, and Church Administrator. Lady Redelia is the wife of Pastor Ronald Fowler of 30 years, and together they are parents of two adult children. They reside in Los Angeles County.